

APPLES FOR THE PIT THE PIT FOR APPLES

I've got hundreds of small apples

I'll toss them in over the course of the day until late at night.

Golly I hope I have enough ~~small~~ apples.

I'm taking unnecessary risks for no reason.

I'm seeking balance, in vain

it's going in the pit

We've gonna peel and clean and chop and fry and bake.

We're gonna cook and clean for hours

then throw it in the pit

I'm waiting until there's no one ~~around~~ around.

I'm throwing this apple because everybody else is too

I'm heaving this enormous apple into the pit in a few ~~hours~~ hours I'll push another even if I'm tired

With time and effort,

Water and sun.

there a pples will grow into the pit

hello yes

to my location

please

it's a giant hole.

you'll see it
